STRIKERS BACK AT JOBS AFTER STRONG PLEA OF WILSON

Government Plans to Launch Program to End Further Trouble in Building
POLICY WILL BE WAGE RAISE AND 8 HOUR DAY
Patriotic Duty to Return to Work, Union Official Declares Today

NEW YORK, Feb. 18.—Striking marine carpenters in the ship yards in New York and vicinity to the number of 6000 will be back in their places by noon today, according to John Stuart, in charge of the local offices of the Marine Workers' Union.

"The President having requested the return to work of members of our union, the members of the local board are getting in touch with them at their different meetings personally, by telephone and by telegraph and advising the men to return to work," said Stuart.

"We are telling them that it is their patriotic duty as American citizens to return to the ship yards. There are about 6000 members of our union on strike in Greater New York."

All night the executives of the union were at work notifying the striking carpenters to go back to the ship yards. President William Hutchison, commenting on the order to the men to return to work, said:

"The situation has been entirely changed by the telegram from the President. The workmen who have been striking for a hearing of their grievances, now feel sure they will get it."

T. M. Guerin, a member of the general committee of the Carpenters and Joiners union, said this morning that he expected 98 per cent of the men to be back in the yards by noon today.

"We have sent out seventy-eight men from headquarters to the different meetings in New York, New Jersey and Staten Island. We were informed this morning that 700 men were going out at Perth Amboy, N. J. We told the organizers to tell the men to go back to work."

"On Saturday night 400 non-union men came over to the union in Staten Island. Representatives of the union did not see Secretary Daniels last night as has been reported. The situation has been passed up to the President. We did not bother with little men because we wanted action."

PLAN PROGRAM TO PREVENT STRIKES
WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—While striking carpenters in eastern ship yards were returning to work today under spur of President Wilson, the government prepared to launch a program that will prevent future walk-outs.

The government now and hereafter will act on the principle that no strike is justified until all methods of adjustment have been tried to the limit and that any action taken contrary to this principle will be regarded as giving aid and comfort to the enemy.

President Wilson yesterday struck at the heart of the trouble by William Hutchison, head of the carpenters and joiners, in a message demanding that he send the men back to work and end the strike.

At the same time President Wilson acknowledged the action of all other labor organizations in standing loyally by the government in the threatened crisis.

Prevent Profiteering
The great problem to be considered now is the new national program of the government in its dealings with labor. The first two factors in this problem, President Wilson advised Hutchison, and the government has already accepted and will perform "to see that the best possible conditions of labor are maintained and that there is no lawlessness and conscienceless profiteering."

The policy followed will be general wage increases, a basic eight-hour law, time and a half overtime on regular week days, double time on holidays and Sundays and the open or closed shop to be maintained according to conditions prevailing in the individual shops before the war.

Secretary of Labor Wilson has called a conference for February 25 between national representatives of employers and workmen which, it is hoped, will result in agreements on basic principles for industrial relationship to govern the government's national policy for the duration of the war.

Five representatives each of employers and workers have been selected and these will choose two representatives of the public, making twelve conferees in all.

Manufacture of peach-pit oil is a new industry that has developed at Placerville.

BASE HOSPITAL BACK U.S. LINES TARGET OF GERMAN AIR BOMBS

BY J. W. PEGLER, United Press Staff Correspondent

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMIES IN FRANCE, Feb. 17. (Delayed)—The wounded and sick occupants of a field hospital a few kilometers behind the American trenches had been transferred to the rear today as the result of a boche air raid.

A German airplane, flying low in the light of a brilliant quarter moon Friday night released ten bombs directly over the hospital. Surgeons standing in the yard saw trails of sparks from the burning bomb fuses streaking toward the earth like red rockets.

The airplane's velocity caused the bombs to miss the flimsy wooden hospital building. They struck in a nearby field, making enormous holes. Fragments smashed the windows of the operating room.

I was visiting some soldier friends a short distance from the hospital when the raid occurred. The wooden hut in which we were sitting seemed to lift from the earth.

A little Carolina kid was picking a banjo and singing in a nasal whine: "My mother's dead in a lonely grave, my father's runned away, my sister's married a gambling man and I have gone astray."

The explosions knocked down the candles in the hut. The captain sprang up and re-lighted them. The kid stopped singing momentarily, then asked: "Captain, hadn't I better keep on singing?"

The captain laughed and replied: "Sure, boy, shake it up."

The kid took up the song where he left off, with the sound of the airplane's motor and machine gun's rat-a-tat-tat overhead and bombs crashing in the field near by. This morning I visited the hospital where a young officer who had not yet been transferred to safety showed me the ugly, jagged fragment of a bomb which struck a door two feet from his bed.

He told how he lay helpless in bed gazing at the sky through a window and saw the livid "tracer" bullets from the airplane's machine guns fired toward the hospital. He heard bombs whistle earthward like the roar of shells through the air.

"I have been under fire in the trenches, but I never felt last night's sensations before—hearing the plane directly overhead waiting for the bombs, wondering whether they'd hit directly on the roof. One fellow sat up in bed and yelled: 'Go on, drop it! drop it!'"

An even more brilliant moon caused the officers to fear a repetition of the raid and resulted in the evacuation of the hospital.

Wilson Moves Firmly To End Strike In Shipyards

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—President Wilson took hold of the shipbuilding strike yesterday with an iron hand.

He sent a telegram to the general president of the Carpenters and Joiners in New York, ordering the men to return to work forthwith.

His message breathed no pleasure. It told the men bluntly that it was their duty in the nation's crisis to further the shipbuilding program and not obstruct it. Refusal on their part to leave their differences to arbitration was undoubtedly "giving aid and comfort to the enemy."

His telegram was to William T. Hutchison, general president of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America, and read:

"I have received your telegram of yesterday and am very glad to note the expression of your desire as a patriotic citizen to assist in carrying on the work by which we are trying to save America and men everywhere who work and are free."

Calls Strike Blow at Nation's Safety
"Taking advantage of that assurance, I feel it my duty to call your attention to the fact that the strike of the carpenters in the shipyards is in marked and painful contrast to the action of labor in other trades and places."

"Ships are absolutely necessary for the winning of this war."

"No one can strike a deadlier blow at the safety of the nation and of its people."

PERSHING PICKS WAY ABOUT IN TRENCHES

Remarkable War Chief of the American Forces Holds General Inspection

BY FRED S. FERGUSON (United Press Staff Correspondent)

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMIES IN FRANCE, Feb. 17. (Delayed)—General Pershing visited the first line trenches today, as a part of a general inspection of the American forces holding this sector. He found the men in excellent condition and spirits. Their patrol work, he ascertained, is becoming rapidly more effective, while the men in the rear are anxious to take their turn in the trenches.

Pershing picked his way through the wet, soggy trenches and emerged with the same spotlessness that made him the wonder of his men in Mexico, where it was said he could go into the dustiest places without seeming to get dirty.

Where other officers slipped and floundered in the mud, Pershing stepped gingerly along, picking his way with sure-footedness and scarcely soiling his boots.

Pershing asked a cook how the food was.

"All right," the cook replied, "except we'd like a little more variety."

"What did you have for supper?"

"Nothing but roast beef, mashed potatoes, bread and butter and coffee."

Returning from the trenches, Pershing visited various headquarters.

The boches last night did their first patrolling in six nights, American pa-

PEACE POSSIBLE PRESENT YEAR BELIEVES WAR SPECIALIST

Defeat Hindenburg on West and World Struggle Is Won, He Declares

BY WILLIAM PHILIP SIMMS (United Press Staff Correspondent)

(Copyright 1918, by the United Press) BERNE, Switzerland, Feb. 17.—(Delayed)—Hold on the west front and the war is won.

Therein is the whole story of my Swiss impressions. I don't mean that peace will follow in 24 hours of Hindenburg's fall, but I certainly believe an allied peace is possible this year.

This conclusion is unshaky. It was reached by a process tantamount to mathematical computations. From personal observation I know what the French punch is like, and what British bulldogism is, while from my study here I believe I have gained a fair idea of what Germany can do. From this knowledge, I don't believe the Germans have the proverbial chance in a thousand, despite Hindenburg's strategy and Ludendorff's tactics. Hindenburg can expect little or no aid from Austria. Emperor Carl's position is too wobbly to warrant sending Austrians, Hungarians, Czechs, etc., to their slaughter on the west front.

The Prussians may brood them into activity against Italy simultaneously with a German offensive against France, but this appears about all. Czernin said in December that Germany is fighting for Trieste, Austria might fight side by side with Germans on frontiers other than Austrian.

Army Reorganized
Ludendorff has practically reorganized the German army, which probably will comprise 200 divisions (2,400,000 men) when the offensive starts—if it starts. Despite the armistice agreement, the cream of the divisions from the Russian front have been drafted to the west. The older troops on the west front have been replaced by storm troops. Austria will aid with artillery and guns captured in Italy and elsewhere.

The Germans are boasting a horrible new gas. They brag that this gas has already been tried out in Italy and Cambrai. But if the information which I have is true, the allies have no need to worry much.

Germany is putting up its biggest bluff. Dying of rot, she is trying to scare the allies by making faces. Doubtless she has one punch left—after which—nothing.

Masses War Weary
The masses are thoroughly war weary. The election at Bautzen is a proof of this. Bautzen, an agrarian center, always was violently pro-German and adamant against socialism. Before the recent election the war party, certain of the result, proclaimed the outcome would show the extent to which the people were backing the Kaiser.

A socialist was elected by a large majority, throwing the military into consternation. Through the latter's own demands the election cry was "for or against reconciliation and peace."

However, as George Archibald, American jockey, just out of Austria, said:

"Don't let this German peace talk fool you too much. Just give them a winning streak and they'll insist on annexing New York and Chicago."

"On the other hand, if they pull an offensive, just give 'em another dose of that Verdun stuff and they'll be eating out of your hand."

MANY MOURN DEATH OF YOUNG AVIATOR

Funeral of Egbert McKean Attended By Hundreds of Santa Ana Friends

Amid a bank of the most beautiful flowers and floral pieces that the gardens of the city could provide and lying in a handsome casket "aced with the Stars and Stripes" of the country for which he gave his life, the last sad rites for Egbert McKean, the young Santa Ana aviator who was killed in a fall at Jennings, La., a week ago today, were said today at St. John's Episcopal church, with Dr. J. A. Stevenson, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, of which the young man was a member, officiating. Dr. Stevenson was assisted by Rev. A. T. O'Rear of Spurgeon Memorial Church.

Hundreds of Santa Ana people who had known the young man from his childhood days were present to pay tribute to Santa Ana's first sacrifice on the altar of the nation's service to a great cause.

In his prayer, Dr. O'Rear brought out fittingly the offering made by the young man and the family. He pointed out the honor and privilege of giving a man to the service of his country.

Roses, sweet peas, carnations, lilies, violets, forget-me-nots, spiky jessamine and many other sweet flowers mingled their fragrance in the sad ceremony. They were intertwined with immense strands of snailax, of asparagus and either end of the casket stood two beautiful American flags, a fitting setting for the earthly remains of the man who gave his life in service for the United States.

At the close of Dr. Stevenson's touching words, these four flags were taken from their places and held in a pyramid over the casket by four members of the Daughters of Veterans, Mrs. Pennie Hamilton, Mrs. Lydia Cooker, Mrs. Joie Glover and Miss Edith Ward, while friends viewed the remains.

The services were attended by members of the home guard in uniform, by a delegation from the G. A. R. and by representatives of the Daughters of Veterans and Women's Relief Corps.

The impressive services opened with a beautiful rendition of "The Rock of Ages," sung by Mrs. Hazel Sauers and Clifford Johnston, lifelong friends of the deceased. Clarence A. Gustlin accompanied at the organ.

Following the singing Dr. Stevenson read a touching scripture from the Psalms, telling of the wonderful care of God in taking care of those in trouble. Dr. O'Rear offered prayer. A solo by Clifford Johnston entitled "Face to Face" was then sung.

The pall bearers were former high school associates of McKean: James Smart, Louis Robinson, Dr. Garland Ross, Lester Carden, John Newcomer and Clifford Johnston.

Dr. Stevenson's address in part follows:

"This community is in mourning today. Every heart is saddened and yet there is something of triumph mixed with our mourning."

"We are thinking of our likable, lovable, sunny-faced, happy-hearted lad. He was fair, frank and fearless. He was not afraid to hit the line in the game and he was never afraid to tell the truth when his instructors wanted facts."

"There are three things to which I will refer.

Egbert McKean—Died in Action
IT IS FOR US TO 'HIGHLY RESOLVE'

Today Santa Ana buried the first of her soldier boys who met a violent death "in action." With our own loving hands and sorrowing hearts, in our own cemetery, we laid to rest the beautiful body of our own boy.

It was a sad, sweet, solemn service that we were permitted to perform, and for which we were duly thankful; for, hope and pray as we may, we must face the grim fact that, as time goes on, almost surely some of our loved ones must lie in lonely graves on the far-off fields of France and Flanders. On the grave of Egbert McKean we may plant flowers that shall yield to us the fragrance of his soul. But for those who may not come back, even in the still, cold majesty of death, we may only plant flowers in the gardens of our hearts—in the gardens of our hearts, where it is always summer, and where we may water them with our unshed tears.

And so we stand with uncovered heads at the grave of this brave boy, who has made the supreme sacrifice. We think of his beautiful young body, cold and still, crumbling to dust. It is hard, very hard. We dare not look at his mother—she, too, has made the supreme sacrifice. It is all very, very hard.

But our hearts are only purified and strengthened by suffering; our tears have only made us see more clearly, as we look away across the sea, our own part in the great human drama that is there moving forward to its climax. And we "highly resolve" that there can be no faltering or wavering, no doubts or fears; but that—

"It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us—that this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom—and that government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth."

WHIRLWIND WEEK FACES CONGRESS
BY L. C. MARTIN
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—A whirlwind week in ending up big war jobs was ahead of congress today.

The railroad control bill was expected to clear the senate and be ready for house action by Saturday. Chairman Smith of the interstate commerce committee was to ask for a definite date for a senate vote today.

Close on the heels of this message was to come the McAdoo war finance corporation bill.

House action was expected early in the week on the daylight saving bill; the senate already having passed it.

Both houses were to wind up the $50,000,000 housing bill to provide better living conditions for shipyard workers.

The billion dollar urgent deficiency bill, carrying monies for many needs of General Pershing, was to receive house approval and follow in the senate after the railroad and war finance corporation measures.

War reorganization work will center in the senate judiciary committee, where the Overman bill, answering President Wilson's request to redistribute administrative functions at will, will be whipped into shape. The military committee probably will vote again on its war cabinet bill which today apparently was deadlocked.

ARMY CAPTAIN'S LIFE IN DANGER IN COLLISION IN THE CITY

Cars Come Together at Corner of Main and Sixth Saturday

Who is at fault, the auto driver who gives a signal for a turn and failed to execute the indicated action, or the man who cuts the corner and collides with the machine driven by the man who gave the signal?

This point came up Saturday afternoon in an auto collision at the corner of Sixth and Main streets in which the lives of five adults and two children were endangered. All escaped without injury except H. C. Blakesley of Bolsa. He sustained a deep cut in the forehead over the left eye. Capt. Moore of Camp Kearny, was a passenger in one of the machines.

Blakesley was riding with his brother-in-law, W. E. Wells, also of Bolsa. Wells was driving north on Main street, and at the corner gave the signal that he was going to turn west on Sixth. R. H. McGinnis of Los Angeles, was coming south on Main street in a big car, and when he saw Wells signal with his left hand that he was going to turn west, McGinnis changed his course to the left expecting to pass to the rear of Wells' machine. Wells, however, changed his course, too, continuing north instead of turning to the west, and the two machines came together head on. McGinnis' big car mounting the little Maxwell driven by Wells. The point of collision was to the east of the center of the intersection, making McGinnis responsible under the law.

McGinnis and his party were on their way to Camp Kearny. With him were his son, Arthur, and Captain and Mrs. H. T. Moore and son.

Wells had a brand new Maxwell, having purchased it only two weeks ago. The front end was pretty badly jammed. McGinnis' machine was also damaged.

HEALTH RECORD FOR COUNTY IS EXCELLENT

In November Santa Ana Fifth In State For Marriage Licenses

The Monthly Bulletin of the California State Board of Health shows that Orange county is continuing its excellent record for health conditions. The table for county birth rate and death totals shows that in November Orange county recorded eighty-four births and forty-eight deaths.

In November this county stood fifth in the number of marriage licenses issued. The counties showing the highest totals for marriage licenses issued follow: Los Angeles, 628; San Francisco, 621; Alameda, 279; San Diego, 250; Orange, 119; Sacramento, 111; San Joaquin, 96; Fresno, 89; Santa Clara, 88; San Bernardino, 67; Marin, 55; Riverside, 50; Stanislaus, 47; and Monterey, 45. The aggregate for San Francisco and other bay counties was 1023, against 747 for Los Angeles and Orange counties together.

PLAY PRODUCED AT NEWPORT TO BEAT CLUNE'S THIS WEEK

Cleopatra, a Colossal Drama,
To Be Here Thursday and Friday

Local people will have an extreme interest in Cleopatra, which is to be presented at Clune's Thursday and Friday of this week. Hundreds of Santa Ana and Orange county people witnessed the filming of many of the scenes in the big production, for they were enacted at Balboa last summer. Some of the boats used in the battle of Actium may still be seen at East Newport.

Miss Theda Bara, undoubtedly the greatest living exponent of vampire roles, portrays Egypt's queen and wears more than fifty different costumes and $50,000 worth of jewels and ornaments. Some of the gowns may appear a little scanty, but each has the endorsement of learned Egyptologists as being absolutely correct. "Cleopatra" is a spectacular drama and was photographed in California. William Fox spared no expense in securing real Egyptian atmosphere, correct settings and architecture. It represents the co-ordinated acting of some 30,000 persons and required the expenditure of an immense amount of time and money. The world's first naval battle—the Battle of Actium—in which eighty vessels were built and then burned, is shown with graphic intensity.

Thrilling chariot races across the desert sands, the hand-to-hand combat of spear-armed troops and the triumphal entry into Alexandria of Octavius' troops are shown, while the Sphinx and the Pyramids look down upon the scenes just as they did thousands of years ago.

Critics have declared that the Cleopatra of ancient Egypt lives again in Theda Bara.

TO RESIST THE ATTACK

of the germs of many diseases such as Grip, Malaria, means for all of us—fight or die. These germs are everywhere in the air we breathe. The odds are in favor of the germs, if the liver is inactive and the blood impure.

What is needed most is an increase in the germ-fighting strength. To do this successfully you need to put on healthy flesh, rouse the liver to vigorous action, so it will throw off these germs, and purify the blood so that there will be no "weak spots," or soil for germ-growth.

We claim for Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery that it does all this in a way peculiar to itself. It cures troubles caused by torpid liver or impure blood. All druggists, liquid or tablets.

LINCOLN HIGH WON VICTORY OVER LOCALS IN DEBATE

Important Question of Importation of Chinese Labor Discussed By Speakers

There was a little difficulty in securing judges for the Lincoln High-Santa Ana debate Friday evening and as a result a queer decision was rendered. Only two judges were present, and after figuring up the two percentages, the Lincolns were credited with five points more than the local "arguers."

The question, of supreme economical importance at the present condition of labor, was, "Resolved, That the present Congress should enact legislation permitting the immigration of Chinese labor to the United States for the period of the war, with the proviso that such laborers be under bond to return to China at the termination of the war."

Harold Keeney and Malcolm Finley supported the question for Santa Ana, with Wilbur Riley and Philip Ossian of Lincoln, opposing them.

Finley opened the argument with statements tending to show that there is a decided shortage of labor at the present time. Farmers cannot possibly find men to carry on their agricultural pursuits, due to the fact that one and one-half million men have been removed from this branch by joining the army and navy. The American labor problem has never been worse. Shipbuilders are embarrassed for men to carry on this most essential work. For every man under arms in the field, two men are required at home to furnish maintenance for him. Taking the condition of the allies into consideration, the output of commodities must necessarily increase. Where will the necessary number of men come from? A few from the hotels, stage bus lines, etc., but these can never fill the quota of men necessary.

The immigration to the United States might be regarded as one remedy, but it has woefully decreased in the past year, with more migration. China has an immense population and can easily spare some of her working men.

Denounces Chinese

Wilbur Riley turned loose a stream of scathing denunciation of the Chinese in general, saying that they were undesirable from every standpoint—morally, physically and ethnically. They are subject to the most loathsome diseases, have no regard for others, treat women inhumanly, and have the most abominable religion. In view of the fact that they can subsist on almost nothing the American labor classes could not compete with them.

Simply because the "Chinks" are under bond to return to China is no reasonable assurance that they will do so. Labor leaders and unpatriotic profiteers will not give up their cheap labor. Not insinuating that Congress is the tool of the money interests, they would be influenced by these unscrupulous men and would legislate tending to allow the millions of laborers to remain here. They might easily waive their bonds.

He compared the conditions which would exist if this measure were adopted, with that prevalent in the south due to negro slaves.

Strengthened Friendship

Harold Keeney advanced powerful arguments in support of his cause. He advocated the importation of the Chinese chiefly because of the forthcoming relations which would be forthcoming from the policy. The United States, because it has no territorial ambitions, is the only country which can effectively assist China in repelling those countries which would seize her land. The new races are more alike than appears on the surface, both denouncing monarchs and militarism.

The main advantages derived from the consolidation would be the mutual aid derived from it. An army of five hundred million men would thus be available to either country, and would be the strongest power in Asia.

He cited the case of France in support of his point. France has imported Chinese laborers, thus releasing thousands of Frenchmen to go to the front. There are also Chinese in the French army.

Denies Shortage

Ossian, of the visitors, denied the fact that there was a shortage of laborers, saying that no proof had been advanced to prove the statement. Laborers are not in evidence because a living wage is not paid. In place of being a shortage there is just a congestion, men not being available where needed most. He referred to the state commissioner of labor, who says there is no labor shortage, there being 3,800 men on the lists of the Los Angeles public employment bureau alone. He laid great stress, both in his rebuttal and in the fact that the cause should be removed in place of seeking a remedy.

Finley refuted his opponents' argument that Chinese could not be returned to China, by proposing a plan whereby they would be gotten hold of. We must win the war, and it takes men to do it. We can tolerate no delay.

Riley devoted his rebuttal time to show that there was no shortage of labor, referring to personal interviews which he had with the state labor commissioner. He admitted that the war must be won, without delay, but remarked that much time would be consumed in getting the yellow men here.

Keeney, Ossian and Finley were each given rebuttal speeches.

The Glee Club entertained with several selections.

The Lincoln debaters also defeated local men at Los Angeles. West and Smiley were on the negative there,

HUNTINGTON BEACH

FATHERS GUESTS OF H. S. BOYS AT BEACH ON LAST FRIDAY

Fine Banquet Prepared and Served By Young Men Themselves

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Feb. 18.—One of the finest exhibitions of community spirit that has been shown for a long time was had at the high school last Friday evening under the direction of the boys of the student body. A splendid banquet was served at 7 p. m., covers being laid for about seventy-five in honor of the fathers of the students of the high school. They called the entertainment "Fathers' Day," but the community spirit so broadened that the boys concluded to include the Chamber of Commerce which they invited to participate with them. One of the noteworthy features of the entertainment was the fact that the boys did all the cooking and serving which was done in the most exquisite style.

Principal V. B. Brown of the high school acted as toastmaster and in a few well directed remarks, he introduced Clyde Wardman, one of the students, to give the welcome address, which he did in a splendid manner. The toastmaster after remarking that he had a new song he wanted to introduce at that time entitled "I Want to Get Back to California," called upon T. B. Talbert, chairman of the board of supervisors, who gave some reminiscences of his thirty days' trip through the East recently.

Mr. E. E. French gave a very interesting talk on building in representing the Chamber of Commerce, after which one of the students, Roy Juniper, of Newport, gave a splendid address on the subject of "high school life compared to the community life." Mr. Juniper, although still small and young, has the material of which great orators are made and we predict for him a grand opening for the future.

F. H. McElfresh, secretary of the high school board, spoke on the community spirit, commending the features of the evening's gathering and urging a more concerted action along those lines. Teddy Tarbox also gave a fine talk.

You just rub Musterole in briskly, and usually the pain is gone—a delicious, soothing comfort comes to take its place. Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Use instead of mustard plaster. Will not blister. Many doctors and nurses use Musterole and recommend it to their patients. They will gladly tell you what relief it gives from sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet, colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). Always dependable. 30 and 60c jars; hospital size $2.50.

Cecil McCoy, one of the students who did himself proud on the sale of war bonds and thrift stamps, gave an address on loyalty.

County Superintendent of Schools R. P. Mitchell gave a few well pointed remarks on what school does to help master subjects, after which the guests were invited to a side entertainment by the boys by way of physical stunts which were much enjoyed by all. The most laughable stunt was a round at boxing with blackened gloves, each participant wearing a white jumper but more black than white at the end of the round, as were also their faces.

The guests were next shown through the manual arts building and given many exhibitions of skill in workmanship by the students, after which all adjourned to their homes well satisfied that it pays to cultivate the community spirit in high school as well as otherwise in the community.

NEW LENS MAKES NIGHT DRIVING MUCH SAFER

"A new lens for making driving at night safer is being sold in large quantities by the Santa Ana Vulcanizing, Ignition & Supply Company," said J. E. Pearce, of the above company.

"The lens is called the Glareless and it is considered an improvement over any lens so far put on the market. It not only throws a soft driving light far ahead but lights up the sides of the road so that in passing a car there is no danger of going off the side. It has the approval of the Santa Ana chief of police and the sheriff of Orange County, both of whom are enthusiastic owners of the Glareless. "We are putting on these lenses for trial, and so far not a pair has been returned."

Packing is now in progress at the Collins house on a sixty ton order. One carload went out Saturday and another will go forward Saturday of this week.

The association handled about 6,000 tons of dried cots in the state, and to date has disposed of about two-thirds of the total, leaving about 2,000 tons in the state. The independent shippers have cleaned up and the only cots in the state are those held by the association.

"The association has had splendid success this season in handling its business," said Hamilton, "and we expect to return a better average price to our members than the average received by those who sold independently."

"We set the mark at 15 cents a pound for the fancy quality at the opening of the season and we believe we will reach it by the time we have cleaned up on this season's crop."

"The affairs of the organization are directed entirely by the directors, who are, with one exception, growers. That exception is myself, and I was chosen in the first instance by the growers of Hemet to represent them. There are twenty-five trustees and the trustees elect the board of directors, the trustees representing different districts in proportion to the apricot or prune production."

"One of the big objects of the organization is to induce growers to exercise their best skill in producing a higher grade of fruit. The man who prunes his trees correctly and gives the proper attention to them is the man who is going to get the best fruit and consequently the best prices. The man who raises the stuff is the man who makes the money, and this is a fact we are trying to impress on our members."

COUNTY'S AVERAGE FOR SUGAR BEETS IS OVER TEN TONS

Reported Six and a Half Tons Too Low, Says Factory Manager

Sugar factory officials declare that the testimony of Cal. D. Lester, as reported by a Los Angeles paper as having been given before the investigating commission of the Food Administration, gave an estimate that is far too low for the productivity of Orange county beet fields.

Lester was reported as having testified that for the last three years Orange county fields have been producing only an average of six and a half tons to the acre.

"The average for the three factories, the Holly at Huntington Beach, the Santa Ana and the Southern California at Santa Ana, is between ten and eleven tons per acre," said Manager Johnson this morning. "The Holly factory has run close to eleven tons every year since I have been here. The averages I am speaking of include all of the land that is being reclaimed, as well as the good lands. "Orange county is known as one of the good sugar beet counties of the state, and official returns show the average over the state to be over ten tons per acre."

OLIVE HEIGHTS ASSOCIATION INCREASES OUTPUT

A Gain of 31 Cars Made In 1917 Over the Previous Year

The Olive Heights Citrus Association shipped thirty-one more cars of oranges in 1917 than in 1916, the total for the year being 146, according to reports read at the adjourned annual meeting of stockholders held Saturday. The cash receipts were $134,794.72. Manager Ben H. Cole stated that there were eighty-three stockholders in the organization at this time, representing 17,327 shares of subscribed stock, which leaves only 113 shares of the capital stock, subscribed. Capitalization is for $25,000. There are seventy-six active members, representing 782½ acres, practically all of which is in Valencia.

The organization has been growing steadily in membership, acreage and quantity of fruit shipped. Earl Morris, county horticultural commissioner, gave an interesting talk to the growers, explaining what his office is trying to do. His address was greatly appreciated by the growers present.

In the election of a board of directors of seven members, the following were nominated: Dr. J. D. Thomas, H. C. Meyer, J. A. Maaz, L. A. Bortz, P. H. Medlin, C. H. Palmer, A. C. Fletcher and W. H. White. Messrs. White and Fletcher declined the nomination and the secretary was instructed to cast the ballot for the remaining seven. The board is the same as last year, except that Dr. Thomas succeeds A. C. Fletcher.

At the directors' organization meeting the following officers were elected: W. H. White, president; Dr. J. D. Thomas, vice president; J. R. Porter, treasurer; Ben H. Cole, secretary and manager.

SHRINERS WILL GIVE BIG SHOW MONDAY, FEB. 25

Proceeds of Big Affair Are to Go to the Santa Ana Red Cross

Next Monday evening, February 25, a big vaudeville and specialty show, put on by the Shriners of Los Angeles, is to be given in Santa Ana, the proceeds to go to the Santa Ana Red Cross.

This affair is to be given under the auspices of Santa Ana Commandery, Knights Templar. The Shriners are giving this entertainment in a number of Southern California cities, and it was through the Santa Ana Commandery that it was dated for this city.

The Shriners are to pay their own expenses here. None of the proceeds goes to them. A parade will be held upon the streets of Santa Ana, previous to the opening of the show, which will be given at Clune's Theater on Spurgeon street.

Tickets are to be on sale through members of the commandery and through women of the Red Cross. B. Uttley and Charles D. Brown, as a committee of the commandery, are today making some of the detailed arrangements for the affair.

REFORM CHOKES OFF HISTORIC SCENES OF CHINATOWN

Oriental Still Gamble and Will Go Where It Is Permitted, Claim

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 18.—San Francisco's historic Chinatown is dying. It is being gradually choked to death by the hand of reform.

Today its most picturesque spots are closed and its "atmosphere" is all but gone.

Only the modern and unromantic business places have survived.

Its hotels and rooming houses are fast emptying. Its stalls and booths in Waverly Alley and other side streets are closing one by one. The windows are nailed up and the spiders and rats the only occupants.

The population has dwindled to 5000. At this time of the year it should be 15,000.

In five years Chinatown will be gone and like the old Barbary Coast, it will be a deserted village, many predict.

These are some of the things learned by a reporter in a trip through the place. He was taken through the Chinese quarter by the Chinatown police squad. He talked with members of the Chinese Chamber of Commerce and of the Chinese Six Companies.

Police and Chinese alike admitted that if the lid is not slightly loosened Chinatown, with its national appeal to tourists, will be ruined. Officials have clamped the lid down tight on Chinatown. Outside of a small lottery or two, gambling has been entirely wiped out.

And Chinatown, as a result, has moved to Oakland.

Within a year the population of the Oakland Chinese district has doubled. The reason, they say, is that Oakland is regulating rather than absolutely stopping gambling among the Chinese.

"And the Chinese will gamble. You can't stop them more than you can stop the world from moving," said one prominent Chinese. "And if you stop them here they'll go somewhere else. When gambling stops entirely, business is bad. The whole district feels it. They go to some town where they can play some sort of game."

The Chinese, this man said, do not ask for the wide-open district. They are willing to submit to regulation. They ask for the same privilege given the American. "Every American is allowed to have his club. The Chinese are not," the man continued. "I'll wager there is not a big club in San Francisco where an American cannot find as good a poker game as he wants. Yet they are not touched. The Chinese asks the same privilege—that is all."

But that is not all. Commercial complications are threatened.

At this moment a move is under way for the transference to Oakland of big Chinese shipping contracts. It is declared that the Pacific Mail Company will build a wharf at Oakland. When this is done Chinese commercial interests will order their goods sent across the bay.

It was shown by prominent Chinese that recently when workers for various drives visited Chinatown it was impossible to raise $5000.

"The Chinese had no money," they said. "In ordinary times Chinatown could be depended upon to furnish this amount in a week."

175 GARMENTS GO TO FRANCE

Local Organizations Contribute to Shipment of the French Red Cross

Mrs. J. Wm. Sackman and Mrs. Hazel Bemus Saturday took 175 good warm garments to the French Red Cross in Los Angeles. These will be sent to France.

FISH COMMISSIONER FOR SO. CALIFORNIA

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 18.—Government control of the fishing situation in Southern California became an accomplished fact yesterday with the appointment of Captain Wesley C. Crandall of San Diego as Federal Fish Commissioner with power to enforce rules and regulations of the Food Administration at all fishing centers, from Santa Barbara to the Mexican boundary.

This is considered one of the most important moves by Ralph P. Merritt, food administrator for California, toward reducing the retail cost of fish and putting an end to profiteering.

THE DEADLY TRUTH

Two British airmen captured within the German lines are said to have been tried by court-martial and sentenced to ten years in prison for "dropping hostile proclamation in Germany."

The news is of special interest to Americans because of the threat from Berlin that any airmen dropping copies of President Wilson's peace message on German soil would be treated as violators of the laws of war. It is not told whether the British victims were distributing American or British propaganda their punishment, in any event, seems to prefigure a similar fate for Americans caught committing the same offense.

The New York Times points out the peculiar topsy-turvy reasoning involved in this procedure. If the British airmen had been dropping defenseless towns, after the German manner, they would no doubt have been treated as prisoners of war. In dropping a peaceful message they were wholly within their military rights. Thus, "if they had violated the laws of war, Germany would not have punished them; but because they did not violate the laws of war, she punishes them as violators of the laws of war."

And yet, as the Times admits, there's method in the Prussian madness—as usual. The missiles dropped by the British airmen, like those that our own airmen will drop by millions as our campaign opens up, were far more deadly than bombs.

"What they dropped was the truth; and the truth, whether it is barred by the laws of war or not, must not enter Germany."

Why? Because it is dangerous to the German soldiers? Not at all! Because it is dangerous to the Hohenzollerns and Hindenburgs and Tirpitzes.

ARGENTINE NEUTRALITY

The American people are somewhat vexed with Argentina for continuing neutral, despite her proclamation against Germany and her frank sympathy with the allied cause. We must admit, however, that her particular brand of neutrality has certain pleasing qualities.

The Argentine government has just replied officially to Brazil's formal announcement of her state of war with Germany. Argentine takes occasion to express the warmest sympathy and admiration for her neighbor's action. She has followed the course of events, she says, and finds Brazil's decision is "just." She expresses her sincere "homage" for Brazil's courageous defense of her own interests and those of world democracy.

Just compare that brand of neutrality with the strict type we showed up to the moment of our entrance into the war. Remembering how Germany criticized us when we were bending over backwards to keep the record clear, we naturally wonder what Germany thinks of Argentina now.

Germany has learned a certain amount of humility, however, by this time. She probably realizes how lucky she is to have Argentina go no further than expressions of good will to the allies, Argentina's open contempt for Germany is more easily swallowed than would be a declaration of war, backed up by an invading Argentine army and a merchant fleet rushing Argentine food to France and England. That may come at any time.

U-BOAT VS. U-BOAT

A naval expert suggests using submarines to catch submarines. He would send American submarines to lurk in the waters infested by U-boats, locating the latter by means of sound detectors, etc., and then attacking them with depth bombs. He argues that submarines would have an advantage over destroyers for this work, because with only the periscope showing above water they could escape detection by the foe.

But what if an American or British destroyer, happening along should take the U. S. A-boat for a U-boat?

Gen. Pershing has ordered his soldiers not to purchase pies. But it's no great hardship. The pies they'd been buying were native products, neither pumpkin nor mince.

Bud Flivver's Observations

*** I was on my way home—From the Milky Way lodge—
Last night—About nine o'clock—
*** And I went down—Hope street—And saw a crowd—
Standing in front—Of Judge Hardcock's house—
*** And when I got near—I heard a woman say—"That's a funny thing—For a judge to do"—
*** And I asked a fellow—What was the Judge doing—
And he laughed and said—"It's the funniest thing—I ever saw"—
*** And the front blind—Was down—All but about—Six inches—And people were—Looking in the window—
*** And there were—So many standing there—I couldn't—
Get close enough—To look in—Or anything—
*** And I asked a woman—What was the Judge doing—
And she said—"I bet four bits—He will make—A fizzle of it"—
*** And the fellow—On my left—Blew his garlic breath—
In my face—And said the Judge—Was getting loony—
*** And I asked him—What was the matter—And he went away laughing—And forgot to tell me—
*** And I tried to—Get to the window—So I could—Rubber in—And see for myself—What was the rumpus—
*** But the crowd—Wouldn't move—And one woman told me—Not to talk so loud—Or he would hear me—And put it away—
*** And I know the Judge—And I went—To the back door—
And knocked—And the maid—Let me in where the Judge was—
*** And I asked him—What kind of a crime—Was he committing—That attracted—Such a crowd—At the front window—
*** And he looked queer—And said he didn't know—Any one saw what—He had been doing—
*** And he explained—How his work—Took up all his days—On the bench—And he didn't have—Much time—To do things—
*** And he said—"I have bought—Liberty bonds—And given to—The Y. M. C. A.—And the Red Cross—And everything—
*** But I thought—I would like to—Do something—In the way of duty—As well as giving—My money"—
*** And he took his hands—From behind his back—And held out—Before me—A gray sweater—He was knitting—By Bud.

CUBS SEEK GAME HERE WHILE ON WESTERN TRIP

Poor Demonstration of Last Year Would Have Poor Effect on Crowd, Belief

There is a possibility of another game in Santa Ana between a local team and the Chicago Cubs. That such an exhibition contest sought by the Cubs on their western training trip, is indicated in a telegram received today from Charles Weeghman, manager of the Cubs, by Secretary Metzger of the Chamber of Commerce. The game played last year between a local team and the Cubs was won by the locals 12 to 3.

The telegram received by Metzger follows: "Would you be interested in Cubs number two team exhibition game Saturday or Sunday, March 23 or 24? What guarantee would you offer, with per cent privileges? Answer."

"CHARLES WEEGHMAN." Such a game would not prove of as great interest this year as it did last, owing to the fact that the Cubs put up such a poor exhibition of baseball. The team gathered together by the local Chamber of Commerce, played spectacular ball, and gave everyone an exhibition well worth while, but the playing of the visitors was hardly out of the land lot variety, according to experts who witnessed the fray. The local team was composed of several local men who were prominent in professional baseball both on the coast and in eastern teams and included such luminaries as Gavvy Cravath of the Phillies, Doc Crandall of the Angels and Fred McMullin of the Chicago White Sox.

BELIEVE GERMANY'S AGENT IN CUSTODY

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 18.—Government agents believe today that in the arrest of Paul Frederick Wilhelm von Eszmarck, one of Germany's most potent agents is in custody and that along with his incarceration pro-German propaganda of nation-wide proportions has been balked.

Von Eszmarck, known under a dozen aliases in as many important cities of the United States, was arrested by Federal operatives Sunday under the name of Paul Frederick Elerts. Although definite evidence against the man will not be given out, it is intimated that he was sent here by the Wilhelmstrasse in 1913, reported to the German consul in New York and at once took up his campaign of espionage and sabotage under the name "Elvert."

His particular "locote" was in Wisconsin, but wherever he has gone strikes, disorders and German thought have sprung up, it is declared. Arriving here today was his young wife, whom, she declares, he deserted in New York two weeks after their marriage, October 4, 1914. Mrs. Elert, the name under which she was married, met the man in San Francisco. Elert registered as an enemy alien and this led to his arrest.

CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

Little Miss Evelyn Sherrill
Takes Friends to Clune's,
Afterwards Feast

Little Miss Evelyn Sherrill, winner of the Little Miss contest, who is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Sherrill, of 602 East Third street, was eight years of age on Saturday and in the afternoon she entertained a party of her dearest friends at a theater party at Clune's and afterwards at a feast of ice cream and wafers served at the Cherry Blossom.

The little folks then went to the home of the little hostess, where they found the rooms prettily decorated with china lilies and greenery and enjoyed merry games for the remainder of the afternoon. Mrs. Sherrill served the children with delicious candies and each one was given a pretty valentine as a souvenir.

Miss Evelyn was well remembered with pretty gifts by her friends, who numbered the following:

Sallie Coe, Elizabeth Beall, Joan Thompson, William Jerome, Solon Beall, Avery Johnson, Willard White and Willis Sherrill.

M'KINLEY LEADS

First to Join Junior Red Cross,
Heads Thrift Stamp List,
Told at Meeting

On Friday evening, February 16, the McKinley P. T. A. held its regular meeting for February and about one hundred fathers, mothers and friends were present to enjoy a very pleasing and interesting program.

Community singing was enjoyed several times during the evening and little Chas. Rasmussen of the school gave a toast to our flag in a creditable manner. Mrs. J. Wm. Sackman gave a most interesting talk on Junior Red Cross work, and demonstrated with samples of work being done by an efficient corps of organized mothers under her chairmanship. She also reported to the association that the McKinley school was the first school in Santa Ana to organize an auxiliary Junior Red Cross and send in their application to Miss Bemis, county chairman.

It might be interesting to note here also that the kindergarten class, under direction of Mrs. Emma Hart Barnes, is the first and only class in Santa Ana to hold a membership in the Senior chapter of American Red Cross of Santa Ana.

A very pleasing song by twelve second grade children, under leadership of Miss Millicent Phillips, was next enjoyed most thoroughly.

Prof. J. A. Cranston followed with a talk on "Playgrounds" and was listened to intently. He also brought to the association the good news that up to date the McKinley school was ahead in the purchase of Thrift Stamps. This school has a fund set aside for the assistance in the Summer Playground work and the Ways and Means Committee is now working on plans to augment the same.

A very pleasing drill and song by Miss Heil's class followed next and was done in such a creditable manner as to reflect the efficiency of their leader in this work.

Rev. P. F. Schrock gave a most interesting address on "Child Welfare" and left much food for thought in the minds of his listeners.

On counting the members, it was found that Miss Andrews' class had the largest representation.

Mrs. J. H. Norton, the president of this wideawake association, gave a few words of greeting and the meeting adjourned to meet again for an afternoon session the second Thursday in March.

This association now boasts of fifty paid-up members.

To Give Lecture
Rev. W. L. H. Benton will give a lecture entitled "Six Weeks in the Blue Ridge Mountains in North Carolina" on the evening of Feb. 28, at Parish hall of the Church of the Messiah.

Friends for Dinner
Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Gowen entertained at dinner yesterday in honor of their old friends, Mr. and Mrs. George Kirby of Galesburg, Ill., who are winter residents at Hotel Clark, Los Angeles. Rollin Kirby, their son, is the famous cartoonist of the New York World. For one cartoon a day he draws a yearly salary of $13,000.

CHEAP CITY WATER

Ransom Reid, City Superintendent,
Tells Civics
Club of Conditions

The Woman's Civics Club held a very interesting meeting at the City Hall Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. J. H. Leebick, secretary of the Associated Charities, gave a very satisfactory report of the work that is being accomplished at the Child Welfare station and $25 was donated from the Civics Club funds to establish a milk station in connection with the Child Welfare work. When milk is not able to purchase it, it will be supplied from this station.

A committee was appointed to meet with the Board of Supervisors at their next meeting, to consider the advisability of appointing an inspector for the horse meat that is being fed to hogs and chickens in this city.

Officers to fill vacancies were elected as follows: President, Mrs. C. H. Wilson; vice president, Mrs. J. C. Dunn, Garden Grove; recording secretary, Mrs. J. M. Aklin; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Barbara Brooks.

At the close of the business session Ransom Reid, superintendent at the city water works, was introduced and with facts and figures explained the position of the city in regard to furnishing cheaper water for city gardens. In the lively discussion that followed important facts were brought out, namely: That water is being furnished the people at an excess profit of $1000 per month, said profit being expended for other city improvements.

That water is being supplied to people outside the city limits.

That no limit can be put to the number of lots supplied any one person.

That the city has no right to irrigate through the fire hose as only a few can be supplied in this manner.

That city farming was carried on last year at a loss and that individual farming by inexperienced people or children has proved a failure; with the rental price of lots doubled and seeds of all kinds much higher farming city lots the coming summer at a profit will be an impossibility.

A number of the visitors and members were of the opinion that water should be furnished the people at cost and it was also recommended that municipal gardening with an experienced superintendent take the place of individual gardening and that the people be supplied with vegetables at cost. It was also recommended that committees be appointed by the city to investigate this matter.

COLONIAL PARTY

Daughters of Revolution Give Pretty Affair, Donate Funds
to a Good Cause

A very charming colonial party was held on Saturday afternoon at the lovely home of Mrs. Ella Campau, which lent itself delightfully to the arrangements as its style is colonial in architecture and arrangement.

The spacious rooms were made cheery with clusters of fragrant carnations and ferns and members of the chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution were hostesses for the occasion, meeting and giving the guests a hearty welcome. They were powdered hair and the quaint colonial dress of other days.

An interesting program was carried out, opening with the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner," which was followed by the reproduction of the first flag, the present flag and the flag salute. The flags were hung back of the chairs of the regent and vice regent.

C. A. Gustlin charmed his hearers with two numbers, the "Spinning Song" and a military march. Miss Carolyn Balke gave reading, "Your Flag and My Flag," and Miss Mary Jo Wilcox read "The Service Flag."

Maurice Phillips gave two well rendered patriotic solos and Misses Vanche Plumb and Adeline Hill told stories of Lincoln and Washington.

Dainty Misses Mabel Trindle, Donna Horton, Beatrice Vegely and Lois Smith prettily danced the minuet in colonial costume, Miss Ruth Violett accompanying on the piano. The maidens were trained by Miss Zylpha Dempsey of the physical training department of the high school and the vice regent, Miss Birdenia Henry presided during the program.

The announcement was made that Mrs. A. J. Crookshank, regent of the local chapter, had been elected auditor for Southern California at the recent state convention. She was presented with a bouquet of red and white carnations by the vice regent, Miss Birdenia Henry.

The program closed with the concert

MacDowell Recital
One of the choicest musical treats which Santa Ana has ever enjoyed promises to be that arranged by the Musical Association for tomorrow night at Elks' Hall when Mrs. Edward MacDowell, widow of the world famous American composer, will interpret a program of the latter's best works.

Mrs. MacDowell's lecture-recitals are serving a two-fold purpose this season, viz, that of awakening long deferred interest in American music and its makers, and the furnishing of very substantial aid to the Convalescent House for Sailors at Peterboro, N. H. and the Hospital Boussuet in France.

The Hollywood "Citizen" has the following to say about the MacDowell recital given there on Thursday afternoon: "One of the largest representations of the membership (Woman's Club) that has greeted an artist this winter came out for the MacDowell program. It took the form of a recital interpreting MacDowell music and was illustrated with stereoscopic views.

"Mrs. MacDowell feels it a duty as well as an honor to devote her life to the cause of American music and to carrying on the interesting work of her husband, America's greatest composer, who has written compositions so numerous and so beautiful as to stagger the imagination, when one stops to think that he died at the age of forty-two.

It was a splendid program, and one which in these war times must have opened the many minds and matrons of the club a desire to be earnest students of American thought and music, and make them proud of the Americans who have given up their best thoughts and efforts to make the nation of today."

The Musical Association confidently hopes that Mrs. MacDowell will be greeted by a large and representative audience at her recital tomorrow evening to which the admission charge has been made very modest and which will include, upon request at the door, membership in the local association for the remainder of the club year. A delightful program is given each month on the fourth Monday evening, to which members are admitted gratis.

Red Cross Activities

Red Cross window emblems may be obtained at the Armory. A large number have just been received.

A display of sample garments made by the workers at the Armory and branch organizations, may be seen in the window of the California National Bank.

The Red Cross Society acknowledges the kindness of the Crystal Cleaning Company for work recently done without charge in the cleaning of about 50 pairs of gloves.

Mrs. Russell Scott's Wednesday afternoon and Thursday forenoon classes will now meet together every Thursday morning at 9:30 in the new surgical dressing room at the Armory.

The Red Cross Shop is located in the room down stairs at the Armory, formerly used by the surgical dressing classes.

It is the proud boast of the Santa Ana Red Cross that they have been asked to make a surgical shirt for San Francisco Red Cross.

The card party given by Mrs. Wm. F. Lutz and Mrs. R. R. Shaffer was another pleasant affair added to the already generous list of such entertainments arranged by the Santa Ana ladies.

Workers for the Red Cross, who have pajamas upon which they are sewing at home, are requested to turn same in at their earliest convenience. A shipment is about to be made.

The Red Cross Shop desires to thank those who have made donations. Interest displayed in this way is going to make the shop a success. If we have goods, we can sell them.

If you are not going to part with at least one article among your possessions, then the shop must fail. It is not the people in charge who are responsible for the success or failure of this venture—it is YOU—and because you have been generous, we have almost $100 to our credit already. The shop will be open on Wednesday and Friday of this week and if the generous donations continue to pour in as last week, the shop will be open every day, after next week.

Lunches consisting of sandwiches, pie, coffee and tea are served to the workers in the Armory, and the social gathering about the tables at noon add a pleasant note to the day's work.

At 4 p. m. tea and wafers are served if desired to the patrons of the shop and on Wednesday and Friday several merry parties gathered around the tea tables.

Cut flowers, plants and fruit found a ready sale and the supply was not sufficient to meet the demand. Here is a chance for donations from the grower of beautiful flowers.

Among the sales on Friday were one dozen perfectly good eggs, and a wonderfully good looking loaf of nut bread—more of which is promised for next Wednesday.

E. D. Burge sent in a load of fine big logs, which keep a cheerful fire going in the fireplace. A note of home" is thereby added to the other comforts provided for our patrons.

Who will bring a pie, a cake, a dozen sandwiches or a dish of salad for the lunches next week?

Won't you bring one article with you when you visit the shop this Wednesday, and won't you ask your neighbor to allow you to bring something from her?

No one has been found yet who can wear the beautiful pearl gray shoes. Some lucky Cinderella is sure to be found, however. They are "2 1/4 A."

During the lunch hour on Wednesday several musical numbers delighted the visitors of the shop. Mrs. James Rice sang "America" in her usual pleasing manner and an encore responded with "Sweet Miss Mary." Miss Elizabeth Easton gave several numbers. Mrs. Samuel Nau accompanying both ladies on the beautiful Starr piano, donated for use in the

How Many War Stamps Have You Purchased?

You have heard of many "get-rich-quick" schemes. Maybe you have tried some.

Here is a "get-rich and stay-rich" plan. Whether it is "quick" or not depends upon you. The main point here is that the facts ARE facts—established by an act of Congress and backed by the United States Treasury Department and all the resources of the richest nation in the world.

It sounds almost fanciful, doesn't it? And yet it is absolutely true—the Government offers a security, selling today in all post-offices and banks for $4.13 which can't go down in value, and which is worth $5.00 in cash at any postoffice in the country, payable the first day of January, 1923.

In ordinary times $1,000 is about the smallest price you can pay for a Government bond. Here is a baby Government bond, face value $5.00, selling for $4.13.

Isn't the only answer to that "here is my $4.13, where is the little bond?"

That certainly is the answer, and millions of people are now buying these securities. They are the world's best buy today. And they are selling at a bargain price. The cost advances on March 1, and goes up a cent a month after that.

The only reason you could have for NOT buying is that you can't spare $4.13 at the moment. That happens to all of us now and then.

The Government has actually provided you with a means of lending a quarter at a time to help pay for the war! The time has come when we can all make war-saving a daily service to our country. It is a big satisfaction. The men in France, and our sailors at sea, don't serve "every once in a while." They serve all the time, day and night, until the war is won.

We can now realize that we are all war workers—citizens of a united nation consecrated to fight a righteous battle. We can serve by saving—saving dollars that save lives.

Do you realize that saving dollars saves lives? It comes about in two ways. First of all, if we save money by going without luxuries and unnecessary articles we leave for Government use the labor and materials which would have produced those luxuries. The Government needs today, to make war goods, more men and women workers than can be had. It needs the materials we are consuming in articles which are not necessary to our health and efficiency. If we are wasteful and extravagant we prolong the war. The longer the war lasts the more of our men will be killed. That is one way we can help save lives by saving dollars.

Another way we can help save lives is by lending the money we have saved to the Government for war uses. Our men are at the front. Our sailors are risking their lives in the Atlantic and the North Sea. But saving these men from unnecessary risk is the solemn duty of every one of us. By saving money which we might spend for luxuries and lending it to the Government to spend for necessities of war, we make our dollars do double duty.

Let us give these men the most wonderfully complete protection that the genius and power of United America can devise. Guns and shells, food, equipment save and preserve lives. These things cost money. Is there a person who for a moment will falter in the right decision or refrain from the necessary action? Where the choice is clear between lending our money to the Government and permitting one unnecessary drop of blood to be shed by our boys in France, isn't the answer the simplest thing in the world?

This is the story of the squarest deal, the best bargain ever offered the American people—or any people—by their Government. Is it any wonder the little baby bonds are selling fast all over America?

You know what they are—the already famous W. S. S.—the $5.00 War Savings Stamps, and Thrift Stamps issued by the United States Government.

OFFICIALS SEE
WHAT IS DONE
AT THE HARBORfect of Jetty Upon Entrance
Is Pointed Out to Santa Anans

Acting upon the theory that seeing is believing, backers of the Newport harbor project are taking out boatloads of people every day from Balboa upon Newport Bay.

Saturday afternoon three boatloads of Santa Anans, including county and city officials, were shown the jetty at Newport Beach. Building at the entrance to the bay, and they were taken upon a trip to the upper bay. Friday, Fuller, and Placentia were represented in a boatload taken out by L. H. Wallace of Newport Beach. In the party were C. Hartranft, R. S. Gregory, E. J. Ler, William Stradley, W. L. Hale, T. Aiken, E. W. Dean, all of Placentia, and N. Frank Moore of Placentia.

The Fuller Tribune says that Hartranft declared that they were all impressed with the feasibility of the project and believe that the harbor would prove a tremendous benefit to Orange county.

From this time on the Orange county harbor has eight more big, influential boosters for it, and nothing will change them from their confidence in the project," says the Tribune.

At the Entrance
That the building of the jetty by Newport Beach has had a big effect upon the conditions at the entrance was pointed out to the old-timers who were the visitors Saturday. These men well remembered the bar which was a menace to both big and little boats.

Since the jetty was constructed the harbor has been maintained a blue channel, W. W. Wilson, J. A. Armitage and others who are familiar with the conditions told the visitors Saturday that the jetty has caused a scouring of the channel so that instead of a minimum depth of four feet over the bar there is now maintained constant minimum depth at the low tide twelve feet.

That, said Armitage, "is the best argument imaginable to show feasibility of maintaining an entrance. With the county helping this jetty, the jetty will be extended 200 feet to a depth of twenty-two feet, which will give us an entrance twenty-two feet deep over the bar at low tide. So far the channel has cleared itself out."

To the west of the old landing at Orange, where thirty years ago used to unload after they had brought in through the entrance high tide, was pointed out as the place where it is proposed to build the docks. These docks will be reached every foot of the way in not less than twenty-two feet.

Ships coming in will pass between Balboa and Balboa Island, up bay to the docks.

Judging from the remarks of men who were upon the trip, the "seeing is believing" effect of the harbor boosters has a decided effect. The feasibility of the project is argued by physical conditions.

PERSHING MAY HOLD ADVANCE
20 MI. FRONTWith Force of 500,000 Men,
U. S. War Chief Can Look
After This Territory

BY J. W. T. MASON
(Written for the United Press)
NEW YORK, Feb. 18.—Secretary Baker's announcement that the United States will soon have half a million troops in France, means that General Pershing will be able to conduct offensive operations on a front of twenty miles, which is approximately the maximum desired in trench operations.

A properly conducted offensive requires the use of six thousand troops per mile, for the first series of forward movements. A major advance along a front of twenty miles should necessitate an army of 120,000 men, with more in reserve. General Pershing could undertake operations of this magnitude if he had five hundred thousand men under him, and allow at the same time for the adequate holding of the trenches on both sides of the offensive area, with a strong reserve force to make good casualties.

After the first half million Americans get into action, it is not probable that those actually engaged in fighting will exceed that number for at least a year. The newcomers will be used to fill up depleted ranks, and to act as reserves. France has not more than two million men actually in the trenches, and this number can be accepted as the probable maximum of her present fighting strength. For America to send an army across the Atlantic equal to twenty-five per cent of the French forces and keep that army up to its full strength would be one of the most remarkable attainments in military history.

At the same time it will be necessary for America's half million to cooperate intimately with the French forces in the sectors near the American zone if the chances of full victory are not to be thrown away. In Lorraine, opposite the American trenches, the German general staff is concentrating a new army to oppose the Americans.

Germany had not more than one thousand men to the mile along the Lorraine front previous to the arrival of General Pershing in France. Since then, von Hindenburg has given deep attention to the problem of defending German soil against an American offensive. For this reason, there must be intimate Franco-American cooperation, despite General Pershing's ability to take the initiative alone. A sustained offensive is necessary to wear down Germany's new forces in Lorraine, and that is possible only if French and American troops work together.

Rain of tremendous value to the farming interests of the county, especially to beet, bean and grain farmers fell last night, breaking a long drouth which has threatened to stunt production to a marked degree this season. The rainfall here for the storm amounted to 1.11 inches, according to the gauge at S. Hill and Son's store, and even inch according to the record kept by the Spurgeon Realty Company.

Beet growers declare that the rain did them untold value, but that they are not yet satisfied. More rain will be very welcome. At the Irvine ranch today it was stated that a week of good weather now would permit the growers to get their seed planted and then further rain would be all to the good for the present crop.

The rain will be of immense value to the bean growers, but will be of more future value than immediate. The ground will be prepared for the planting time now, and the moisture will be stored for the later seeding. The barley and grain crop will be greatly helped. The seed is practically in, and most of it sprouted. The present rain is sufficient to bring it along in good shape, in the mountains this storm is sufficient to bring the grass up in fine shape, halting the famine which has threatened the cattle ranges.

The heavy rain began falling here shortly after 7 o'clock. It was preceded by a stiff gale from the southeast, and south. When the rain did begin to fall it came in torrents. The streets were flooded in a short time. Practically the entire amount fell within two hours. The rainfall is reported as general along the southern coast.

At the County Park the fall is reported to have been 1.32 inches. The creek rose about two feet during the brief period.
Six inches of snow is reported on top of Saddleback today.

LONGEST DROUTH SINCE 1877
LOS ANGELES, Feb. 18.—Southern California's longest drouth since 1877 came to a watery grave in a down-pour of rain late yesterday that drenched the countryside generally to a depth ranging from three-quarters of an inch to 1.25. For three hours the storm swept the entire south and in the Santa Monica mountains a cloudburst was reported. As a result a "situation" that was nothing short of alarming—to quote Weather Observer Carpenter—has been saved. Millions of dollars in crops have been saved and agricultural conditions in general greatly benefited.

HEAVY RAIN IN NORTH, REPORT
SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 18.—Drouth in the San Luis Obispo region which has been the most serious in the state, was effectively relieved during the last 24 hours, the weather bureau indicated today. San Luis Obispo has been the center of the rains of Sunday, its rainfall for 24 hours being 1.42, the heaviest in the state. More rain is predicted.
During the 24 hours ending last night San Francisco had .68 of an inch of rain; Eureka, .40; Sacramento, .38; Fresno, .36; Point Reyes, .33, and Mount Tamalpais, .88.
At Sacramento a brief thunderstorm occurred.

DR. J. A. STEVENSON TO DO RELIGIOUS WORK AT KEARNY

Leave of Absence Granted Probably Not to Take Effect Before July 1

The session of the Presbyterian Church yesterday granted their pastor, Dr. J. A. Stevenson, a three months' leave of absence in order that he might take up work as director of religious work at Camp Kearny.
The call to this work came to Dr. Stevenson several days ago, and he has had the matter under advisement, while seeking further information regarding the details of the work. His leave of absence is granted with the understanding that it is to take effect at the time agreed upon between Dr. Stevenson and the National Commission of religious work.

Dr. Stevenson stated today that it was not likely that this time would be before July 1.

UNLIKELY THAT THERE WILL BE APPEAL IN THE CALLENS CASE

This Morning's Physical Test Gave Fifty Per Cent Full Service

It is not likely that an appeal can be or will be taken from the decision of the appeal draft board denying an agricultural exemption to Joe Calless, lima bean grower of Irvine.

There is no denying that the local draft board was of the opinion that Dr. C. D. Ball and Attorney Clyde Bishop should have recommended the exemption of Calless because Calless is a producer of a large amount of foodstuff, but conditions are such that the chances are that even if it were possible to appeal the local board would not endeavor to have the case taken over the head of the appeal board to the President.

The rules allow an appeal to be taken by a local board only when at least one member of the appeal board votes against the majority. The record sent down in the Calless case shows that only three members of the appeal board were present when the Calless agricultural claim was denied and that those three members voted in favor of denial. Since no member of the appeal board voted in favor of allowing Calless' claim, probably no appeal could be taken.

This morning twenty-two Class A men were examined physically by Orange County Board No. 1, and eleven of the twenty-two were passed as qualified for full military service. That is by far the highest average yet made in an examination here. Dr. D. F. Royer said that the new physical regulations had nothing to do with the percentage. He said it just happened that the men were an unusually strong lot.

The results of the examinations this morning follow:

Full military service—Henry N. Duncan, Cassville, Mo.; James R. Ragan, Orange 1; Martin O. Tripp, R. D. 4; Jacob G. Timken, Olive; Gerald J. Goddard, Orange; Lynn B. Wallace, Orange; Loris A. McCain, 115 South Main; Ray E. Dunn, R. D. 7; Robert R. Derkum, Laguna Beach; Raymond R. Dickinson, 820 North Birch; Thos. B. Barnes, Orange; John W. Lamb, 317 South Sycamore.

Limited service—Elmer R. Harper, Orange; Edwin A. Armstrong, Long Beach; George Amos, Orange; Verna C. Lay, Orange; Fred Gulley, 312 E. Sixth; Leonard A. Warner, Riverside; Paul R. Bay, Orange.

Disqualified—Charles A. Holbrook, 504 1/2 North Main; Peter G. Rios, San Juan Capistrano; Fred H. Bunke, Olive; John W. Dille, 502 Halladay. Word has been received from Adj. Gen. Borree that the following have enlisted: Mike Anderson, 1040 West Third, in infantry; Preston F. Starkey, Orange, army; Thomas B. Walker, 1067 West Third, naval reserve; Oscar A. Carothers, 731 South Main, naval reserve; Floyd M. Dean, 1123 E. First, army; True M. Kimball, West Third, navy; Arthur W. Hiatt, San Juan Capistrano, aviation signal corps; Cecil M. Shugg, Capistrano, aviation signal corps; Charles V. Doty, 310 West Camille, medical reserve; Congdon R. Cook, Capistrano, aviation signal corps.

The following men were classified by the local board today: R. J. Walker, Class 3; T. W. Kimball, A. W. Utter, H. L. Hiatt, C. M. Shugg, C. V. Doty, C. R. Cook, Merle F. Dean, T. B. Walker and O. A. Carothers, all Class 5.

REPORT CAR STOLEN FROM BOULEVARD NEAR ANAHEIM

Machine Stalled By Storm Left For Night, Missing This Morning

Attempts are being made today to find a stripped Ford roadster reported stolen last night from the boulevard this side of Anaheim. The car belongs to Peter Crow of 7087 Hollywood Blvd., Hollywood.

Crow, accompanied by a boy, was on the way from San Diego to Los Angeles when he was overtaken by the storm. His engine became flooded and he was unable to get it started. Finally giving up the attempt, he went into Anaheim to spend the night, leaving his machine just beyond the Edison substation on the Anaheim boulevard. This morning the car was missing.

The car is reported to be a stripped Ford roadster, painted red, with black wire wheels. It has no top or fenders, and is equipped with two extra tires and two spotlights. Its number is 182,623.

BORROWS CARD SO HE CAN BUY DRINK OF BEER

Testimony of Youth Causes Citation to Be Issued For Registrant

When Grant Dalby, aged 16, was before Judge Thomas in juvenile court this morning explaining how he and another boy happened to take an automobile from the Arrow Garage at Huntington Beach without the permission of the owner, Dalby spilled the beans for George Foltz, if what Dalby said is true. Dalby said that Foltz loaned him his draft registration card so that Dalby could convince a bartender that he was 21 years old and thus be enabled to buy a glass of beer.

Dalby was telling Judge Thomas that he and his companion took the machine and went to a dance at Wintersburg or Westminster. They saw some other boys hide some booze and they appropriated the bottle. They rode to Santa Ana and returned with the machine to Huntington Beach. The machine was damaged about $25.

In the quizzing of Dalby it developed that Dalby was in Los Angeles one day when he met a friend on the street. He borrowed the friend's registration card, and with it he went into a saloon. The purpose in having the card was to show that he was 21. Minors would not be served.

"Who gave you that card?" demanded Judge Thomas. Dalby hesitated.

Don't let your stomach, liver and bowels make you miserable. Take Cascarets tonight; put an end to the headache, biliousness, dizziness, nervousness, sick, sour, gassy stomach, bad cold, offensive breath and all other distress; cleanse your inside organs of all the bile, gases and constipated matter which is producing the misery.
